

OLS Afterschool Drama Classes

DRAMA CLASS OPTION FOR 2025/6

DRAMA BENEFITS:

Are you ready to unlock a world of confidence and self-expression? Drama and public speaking classes are more than just activities – they're gateways to incredible benefits that can transform your life. If you're a student looking to boost your confidence or explore your creative side, these classes have something extraordinary in store for you.

Class Options:

You now have the option of signing up for a class that will practice Drama & Communication skills in a fun and collaborative environment.

Students will have the option of preparing for Royal Irish Academy Exams in either Creative Performance or General Communication/Public Speaking. These classes and exams will count as a Gaisce skill if you are participating in Gaisce.

They will also prepare you for presenting and interview skills- which are essential in all job types going forward in your future.

Class Teacher:

The class will be delivered by Liz Daly -a Speech & Drama Teacher with over 25 years experience who is also an Examiner with The Royal Irish Academy and a Drama Adjudicator for several Drama Festivals.

Why are these classes for you?

Not only will these classes boost your confidence, but they'll also help you enhance your communication skills. Public speaking is a superpower that allows you to articulate your thoughts with clarity, persuasion, and charisma. In drama, you'll learn the art of effective storytelling, understanding the power of body language, vocal tone, and emotional expression. These skills are invaluable in both personal and professional settings. Whether it's nailing a class presentation, expressing your ideas assertively, or even acing interviews, drama and public speaking classes equip you with the ability to engage and captivate others with your words.

But that's not all! Drama and public speaking classes offer a world of creativity and self-discovery. Through improvisation exercises, character exploration, and script interpretation, you'll unlock your imagination and tap into your inner artist. These classes provide a safe space to explore different perspectives, emotions, and personalities, allowing you to develop empathy, creativity, and a deeper understanding of yourself and others. You might even discover hidden talents or ignite a passion for the performing arts that can lead to exciting opportunities in the future.

So, if you're ready to step into the spotlight, drama and public speaking classes are waiting to unlock your full potential. Get ready to embrace confidence, hone your communication skills, unleash your creativity, and forge lasting friendships. The stage is set, and the journey begins now. Join the dramatic adventure and watch yourself shine!
