Dream of studying abroad in Germany, but unsure how to finance it?

Our Top 3 Scholarships in Germany

Dream of studying abroad in Germany, but unsure how to finance it? The good news is that Germany is a relatively affordable country to study abroad in. What's more, plenty of German universities offer scholarships to help international students such as yourself!

To get you started, here are three of our top picks of schools in Germany who offer international scholarships.

#1: Schiller International University

Schiller International University in Heidelberg offers a range of different scholarships, including the International Scholarship Undergraduate/Graduate for those who demonstrate contributions to cultural or social activities.

#2: WHU – Otto Beisheim School of Management

With campuses in Berlin, Düsseldorf, and Vallendar, WHU is a German business school that offers many different scholarship opportunities. One in particular is the Excellence and Diversity Scholarship which is aimed at non-EU students who demonstrate excellent academic merit.

#3: HHL – Leipzig Graduate School of Management

Based in Leipzig, HHL works with numerous private and public sponsors to offer a series of scholarships aimed at international students. For example, the National Scholarship Program supports highly motivated excellent students, offering 300 euros per month.

SAP Ireland Co-Op Learning Scholarships in Germany

SAP Ireland Co-Op Learning Scholarships in Germany – SAP Co- Operative Learning is a fantastic third level scholarship opportunity for qualified Leaving Certificate Students studying German. They will simultaneously combine academic studies and industry experience with the leading business software company SAP. This dual-study program will kick-start students' careers in IT with the opportunity to study at an accredited Degree Program in Germany with Baden- Württemberg Cooperative State University (DHBW) while also gaining valuable work experience with SAP at their headquarters in Walldorf, Germany. There are no college fees and students will be paid a generous stipend for the duration of the 3 year program.
