Wellbeing

Everyone experiences vulnerability and a need for care at some stages in their journey through life. All children and young people may be vulnerable at different stages of their development, and their sense of wellbeing may vary from time to time. Developing, nurturing and sustaining our wellbeing is a lifelong process.

The following definition of Wellbeing aims to take account of its multi-dimensional nature (World HealthOrganisation (WHO), 2001).

"Wellbeing is present when a person realises their potential, is resilient in dealing with the normal stresses of their life, takes care of their physical wellbeing and has a sense of purpose, connection and belonging to a wider community. It is a fluid way of being and needs nurturing throughout life".

The Pieta Amber Flag Initiative recognises the individual efforts of schools, companies and groups to create healthy and inclusive environments that support mental well-being. It unites these groups in their efforts to work together towards a happier, healthier Ireland and eradicates the stigma associated with mentalhealth issues.
