MT Arts Council - If you are a parent, and are interested in joining the Council, have skills that you would like to offer, or work in the Arts and would be interested in mentoring or helping out - let us know at artscouncil@mounttemple.ie

Student MT Arts Council - The council is open to all students, please come along to a meeting to get involved - Next Meeting - Thursday 12th - Lunchtime in M1.

Arts Council Student Fund - Are you interested in applying to the Arts Council Student Fund, but not sure where or how to start? Why not come along to an information session on Tuesday 10th at lunchtime in M1 Ms O'Brien's music room and learn more? Bring those ideas and questions you have and we will do our best to answer them and help you write a successful application!

Save the Hall Campaign - The Arts Council is putting together a campaign to save the Mount Temple Hall, which is due to be demolished in the next stage of the school build. Watch this space as we need your help to keep this important art space!

Sparks Session - Following on from the tremendous success of our first Spark Session with Domhnal Gleeson - We will be announcing our next session soon - tickets went fast for the last one!
